RA Range Hebrides - Day 1

MISSING THE POINT

Bob Rogers (CompassSport Vol14 No4) suggests imposing fines on clubs who fail to produce results within 2 weeks of badge or national events. Can I remind him that orienteering events are organised by volunteers, usually with busy full time jobs and families, who ask for no other reward than the satisfaction of providing a good day's competition for others. Really, does it matter if results are a few days late?

There is already quite sufficient red tape issuing forth from BOF to put off the average orienteer, who asks for no more than a regular diet of good courses in nice forests. The letter by Don Blunt complaining about the JK '93 being 'hardly orienteering at its best' is also a typical example of the attitude of some people involved in the sport.

Bob finishes off by saying that orienteers deserve a good, consistent, results service. Why? What have 'orienteers' done which is so special to 'deserve' good services? I think he is missing the point entirely. It's event organisers (and results compilers) who deserve the gratitude of competitors.
